

Literacy

Fictional text and poetry. Students will learn about the story structure, characterisation and plot alongside the use of vocabulary, grammar and pragmatics together to tell a story. Narrative and storytelling skills are a key focus and an important part of developing pupils' communication. Literacy sessions will incorporate development of handwriting, spelling and speaking and listening skills.

Numeracy

Over the term we will cover a range of mathematical skills. We will begin with number

Looking at number bonds application of different strategies, looking at properties of 2D and 3D shapes. We will measure and estimate and learn which units of measure to use for length.

Science

This term we will be learning about plants: looking at different parts and their functions, what plants need and investigating the way in which water is transported within plants. We will also explore pollination and seed formation.

Humanities

Geography: We will be learning about the physical and human geography of a region of the UK, a region in a European country and a region within North or South America.

History: This term our focus is learning everyday life in Ancient Greece including significant people, places and events.

Autumn Curriculum Overview Theme: Air Land & Sea

Creative Arts

Art: Creating a 3D model of a train carriage and using various skills to create a textured picture

Drama & Music: Exploring animal movements and sounds as well as exploring Hamilton, the origins of Hip Hop and the social implications of the rivalry, its tainted history and how it has changed.

PSHE & RSE and Religion

PSHE & RSE: The focus will be on Health and wellbeing. This covers medicinal and recreational drugs, the dangers, risks and where to seek help

RE: Different religious beliefs, practices and celebrations

Technology

Information technology: We will be looking at remote control and programmable devices as well as microbits, gadgets, video calls, drives, files and E-Safety

Wood technology: We will be linking to the theme ('Land Air and Sea') by making boats. They will make a small wooden sail boat using a variety of tools. Also looking at foil and how to make it float.

PE & Pinewood Outdoors

PE: Games- we will learn basic techniques of ball handling and basic rules of Unihoc

PO: Identifying hazards, problem solving through games and orienteering